

What makes me special?

Nursery Autumn Enquiry

History Key Knowledge

1. I was once a baby and now I have grown.

2. Things about me have changed as I have grown.

3. Photographs can tell us about things that happened before.

4. Many things change over time, including me!

5. Families may be different from each other, but all families are special.

6. The people in my family have their own stories and memories.

7. I know who is in my family and that I am an important part of it.

8. Special events help us remember important times.

History Key Vocabulary

today

The day that is right now.

yesterday

The day that has just finished before today.

family

A group of people who care for each other and keep each other safe.

change

To make something different.

photograph

A picture made with a camera that saves a special moment in time.

past

Time that has already gone by and things that have already happened.

memory

Your brain's amazing superpower to remember things that happen.

different

Not the same as something else.

same

Things that are like something else.

special

Something that is very important to you.

unique

The only one of a kind, there is nothing or no one else like it.

What makes us who we are?

Nursery Autumn Enquiry

Art and Design Key

Knowledge

9. I know the names of at least five colours: red, blue, yellow, green and orange.

10. Different artists can draw and paint people in different ways.

11. Joan Miró was an artist who used simple shapes, lines and colours to draw and paint faces and bodies.

12. Vincent Van Gogh was an artist who used colour to show feelings and make his paintings interesting.

Art and Design Key Vocabulary

artist		An artist is someone who uses their imagination to make pictures, sculptures and other works of art.
features		A special part of something. The features of your face are your mouth, nose and eyes.
colourful		Something that has lots of bright and different colours.
paint		To use colours, brushes or fingers to make pictures on paper or other surfaces.